In exercise of the powers conferred by clause (3) of article 77 of the Constitution, the President hereby makes the following rules further to amend the Government of India (Allocation of Business) Rules, 1961, namely:-

1. Short title and commencement.- (1) These rules may be called the Government of India (Allocation of Business) (Ninetieth Amendment) Rules, 1971.

(2) They shall come into force at once.

2. In the Second Schedule to the Government of India (Allocation of Business) Rules, 1961,-

(a) under the heading "MINISTRY OF PLANNING (YOJANA MANTRALAYA)", for the existing entries, the following entry shall be substituted, namely:-

"Responsibility to Parliament in regard to the subject of national planning."; and

(b) after the heading "PRIME MINISTER'S SECRETARIAT (PRADHAN MANTRI SACHIVALAYA)" and the entries thereunder, the following heading and entries shall be inserted, namely:-

"PLANNING COMMISSION (YOJANA AYOJ)

1. Assessment of the material, capital and human resources of the country, including technical personnel, and formulation of proposals for augmenting such of these resources as are found to be deficient.

2. Formulation of Plans for the most effective and balanced utilisation of the country's resources.
3. Definition of stages in which the Plan should be carried out on a determination of priorities and allocation of resources for completion of each stage.
4. Determination of the nature of the machinery necessary for the implementation of the Plan in all its aspects.
5. Appraisal from time to time of the progress achieved in the execution of each stage of the Plan.
6. Public Co-operation in National Development.
7. Perspective planning.

NOTE:- The Planning Commission (Yojana Ayog) will be concerned broadly with technical questions relating to planning and the planning organisation itself. The policy and details of specific schemes included in the Plan are matters to be dealt with by the Central Administrative Ministries and State Governments."
